

FROM THE COUNTRYSIDE TO YOUR BACKYARD,
make a home for birds, butterflies,
and other nature's creatures.

Mike Knigge '02

Wetlands help our environment. They act as a sponge to store water. Wetlands trap sediment and filter pollutants. Wetlands help recharge groundwater and aquifers. Wetlands also provide a home for birds, butterflies, frogs, and fish.

Learn more about wetlands at <http://www.nrcs.usda.gov/feature/highlights/wetlands/>

Learn more about Backyard Conservation: <http://www.nrcs.usda.gov/feature/backyard/>

 NRCS Natural Resources
Conservation Service
South Dakota